

How to Add Passage to a Test

Here is an example of a passage with questions:

Based on the passage below, respond to the following question.

"Our nation also needs a clear strategy to confront the threats of the 21st century -- threats that are more widespread and less certain. They range from terrorists who threaten with bombs to tyrants in rogue nations intent upon developing weapons of mass destruction. To protect our own people, our allies and friends, we must develop and we must deploy effective missile defenses. "

- George W. Bush, State of the Union Address, February 27th, 2003

1. Which policy is former President George W. Bush supporting in this speech?
 - a. Containment
 - b. Militarism
 - c. Isolationism
 - d. Impending War
2. Saddam Hussein led Iran into which of the following conflicts?
 - a. Iran-Iraq War

To add a passage with multiple questions:

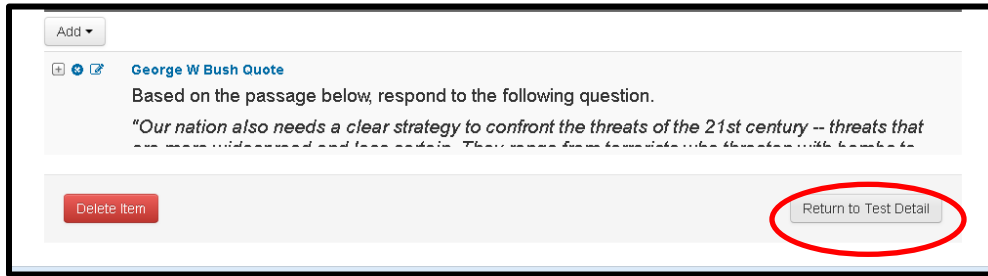

1. Add item and choose type. If questions from passage are multiple choice, choose multiple choice and add first question. You add the question that relates to the passage before adding the passage.

The screenshot displays a test creation interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Test Stage' with options: Private Draft (selected), Public Draft, Ready To Schedule, Scheduled, In Progress, and Completed. Below this is a 'Test Items' section showing a list of 10 items, each with a red triangle icon, and a '+ Add Item' button with the text '10 total items'. The main area is titled 'Choose an item type for this item' and contains a grid of 12 item type icons with their respective labels: Multiple Choice, True/False, Gridded, Open Response, Inline Response, Matching, Hot Spot - Single Selection, Hot Spot - Multiple Selection, Planet, Earth, and a grid of letters A, B, C, D.

2. Add the question and answers then scroll to bottom and under Passage, select Add, use the pull-down to select New Passage.

The screenshot displays a test editor interface. At the top, under the heading "Answer Choices", there are four options: A) Containment, B) Militarism, C) Isolationism, and D) Impending War. Each option includes a point value and a checkbox for the correct response. Below this, there are sections for "Tools and Manipulatives" (with an "Enabled" checkbox) and "Formula Reference Sheet" (with a "Select" button). At the bottom, the "Passage" section is highlighted with a red box. It features an "Add" dropdown menu that is open, showing options: "Passages on this Test" (with a sub-option "Religious Beliefs"), "New Passage", and "Search for Passage". A "Return to Test Detail" button is visible on the right side of the passage section. A copyright notice for Pearson Education, Inc. is visible at the very bottom of the page.

5. Return to Test Detail

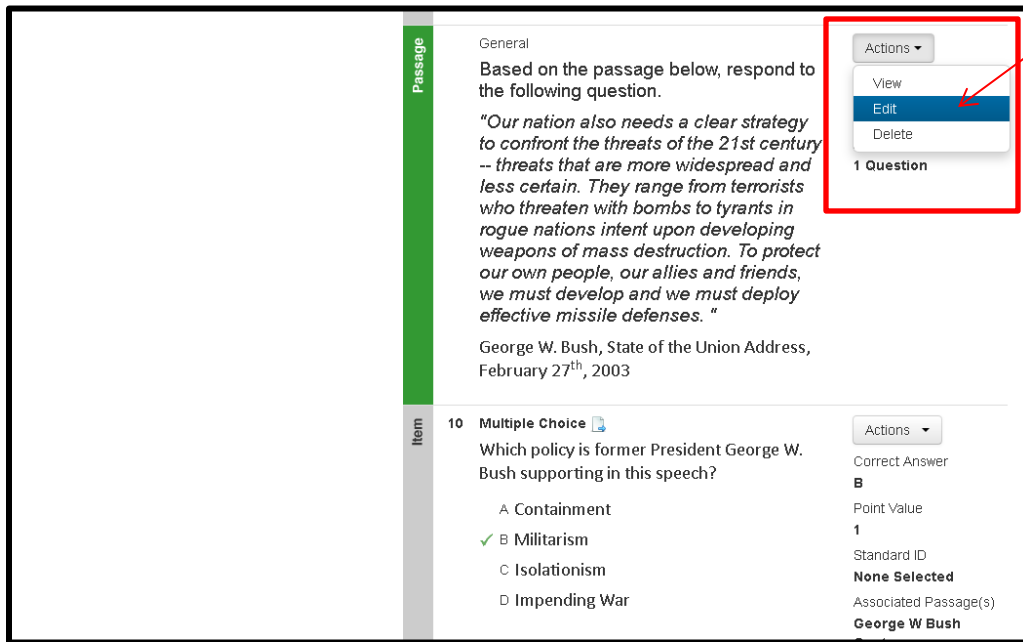

The screenshot shows a test item editor interface. At the top left, there is an 'Add' dropdown menu. Below it, the item title is 'George W Bush Quote'. The main text of the item reads: 'Based on the passage below, respond to the following question.' followed by a quote: "Our nation also needs a clear strategy to confront the threats of the 21st century -- threats that are more widespread and less certain. They range from terrorists who threaten with bombs to tyrants in rogue nations intent upon developing weapons of mass destruction. To protect our own people, our allies and friends, we must develop and we must deploy effective missile defenses." At the bottom of the editor, there are two buttons: a red 'Delete Item' button on the left and a grey 'Return to Test Detail' button on the right, which is circled in red.

6. The passage will display with the first set of questions you add below it.

The screenshot shows a test item editor interface with two sections: 'Passage' and 'Item'. The 'Passage' section has a green vertical bar on the left and contains the following text: 'General', 'Based on the passage below, respond to the following question.', the quote from the previous screenshot, and 'George W. Bush, State of the Union Address, February 27th, 2003'. To the right of the passage is an 'Actions' dropdown menu and a list of metadata: 'Passage Title: George W Bush Quote', 'Associated With: 1 Question'. The 'Item' section has a grey vertical bar on the left and contains: '10 Multiple Choice', 'Which policy is former President George W. Bush supporting in this speech?', four options (A Containment, B Militarism, C Isolationism, D Impending War), and a 'more' link. To the right of the item is another 'Actions' dropdown menu and a list of metadata: 'Correct Answer: B', 'Point Value: 1', 'Standard ID: None Selected', 'Associated Passage(s): George W Bush Quote', and 'Align to a standard'.

7. Go back to the passage and under Actions , use the pull-down and select Edit
